Bering Sea Gold

Every summer, as the glacial ice melts around Nome, Alaska, a handful of fortune seekers hunt for gold in the most unlikely of places: the bottom of the Bering Sea. Meet the salty and unique characters that dive to the frigid ocean floor, spending hours hunting gold from custom built, sometimes barely seaworthy rigs.
While words prove powerful, there are times when it simply comes down to tempers and bare knuckles. We highlight the ten best Deadliest Catch fights from all previous seasons, utilizing new interviews to dive deeper into what the conflicts were really about.

Deadliest Catch: After the Catch Series 3 - 7

Since the crewmembers spend most of their time aboard their respective boats pelting the unforgiving seas of Alaska, nothing but interesting tales and conversations surface when they’re together. Watch as the crew sits down with Mike Rowe and reminisce about the good, the bad and the bizarre.

Deadliest Catch: Behind the Scenes Series 3 - 8

Go behind the scenes to meet the men and women that make Deadliest Catch possible. Like the fishermen, the TV crew endures months of brutal cold, dangerous storms and the constant threat of being crushed by gear.

For some it’s a season of change. For others, a chance to make a name for themselves. Regardless, the perilous, icy waters of the Bering Sea and most dangerous job in the world stay the same. Rejoin our Emmy® Award Winning series and watch the drama unfold.
Whale Wars  Series 1 - 4

They’re back! The crew that polices our oceans – despite constant risk of losing life and limb. The group’s three month sojourn, across the Antarctic waters highlights both the controversial whaling trade and the tactics that the Sea Shepherd Society and its staff and volunteers use to attempt to cripple it.

Whale Wars: Viking Shores

The Faeroe Islanders annually slaughter 2,000 to 3,500 pilot whales during ceremonies that have been heralded as both a historical and cultural right of passage. Will the Sea Shepherd crew attempt to intervene at the risk of upsetting one culture’s 500-year-old tradition?

Gold Rush: Alaska  Series 1 - 2

Gold Rush highlights a group of down-on-their-luck men as they risk everything to strike it rich mining for gold in Alaska. Todd Hoffman leads the miners - now with one series under their belts - to finish what they started and strike rich during one of the worst economic turndowns in history.
Dirty Jobs Series 1 - 6

Dirty Jobs profiles the unsung laborers who make their living in the most unthinkable - yet vital - ways. Host and apprentice Mike Rowe introduces viewers to a hard working group of men and women who overcome fear, danger and sometimes stench to accomplish their daily tasks. Rowe assumes the duties of the jobs he’s profiling, working alongside the professionals: average folks tackling extraordinary tasks that simply must get done.

Flying Wild Alaska Series 1 - 2

In the wildest regions of Northern Alaska, the only way in and out is by bush plane. It’s a world of dangerous weather, harsh conditions and small communities bonded by native customs, whose very survival depends on air travel. Here, the Tweto family operates Alaska’s largest regional airline, Era Alaska.
Man vs. Wild
Series 1 - 6

73 x 60 mins

Bear Grylls is a seasoned adventurer who served with a Special Forces unit of the British army, where he trained as a survival expert. He has been to places and done things that would defeat most normal people. In each episode, Bear strands himself in popular adventure destinations and finds his way back to civilization, demonstrating local survival techniques.
Fourth-generation logger Bobby Goodson is one of the rare breeds of swamp loggers working murky, dangerous swamps in search of high-value timber. His family-owned operation employs nearly a dozen swamp veterans and together, they battle extreme conditions, overcome mechanical breakdowns, face personal health crises, and deal with the constant push to grow the business during a time of economic uncertainty.

Experts agree there are some very basic and universal rules for surviving in the wild - find shelter, water, food and help. Military-trained Dave Canterbury and naturalist, Cody Lundin take on some of the planet’s most unforgiving terrain to demonstrate, in their own way, how the right skills and some creative thinking can keep you alive.

Every spring, changing weather patterns create a recipe for catastrophe as air masses collide into each other with devastating force, producing deadly twisters. Meteorologist Reed Timmer, IMAX filmmaker Sean Casey and weather engineer Tim Samaras battle weather, and each other, to get images and data that could help decode the secrets of nature’s most intense storms.
Bravo November

Join Mike Brewer as he climbs onboard the Bravo November - the original identification code painted on a British Royal Air Force Boeing Chinook HC2. It was one of the original 30 aircraft ordered by the RAF in 1978 and has seen action in every major operation involving the RAF in the helicopter’s 25-year service life. Since 1982, it has served in the Falkland Islands, Lebanon, Germany, Northern Ireland, Kurdistan, Iraq and Afghanistan.

Secrets of the FBI

Take a behind-the-scenes look at the all-encompassing effort mounted by the FBI to keep safe the capital of the United States, Washington, D.C., particularly during the State of the Union Address. We reveal footage of actual bomb threats and response teams, detection / handling technology and robots, visualizations of potential bomb impacts on the DC metro area and in-depth interviews with some of the FBI’s highest-ranked agents.
On June 2nd, 2010, a popular, mild-mannered taxi driver embarked on a deadly three-hour shooting rampage. He killed 12 people, including his twin brother, and left many more injured in the quiet rural communities of West Cumbria. After armed police cornered him, he eventually turned the gun on himself. The carnage, which created 30 separate crime scenes across the county, shocked one of the most peaceful parts of Britain.

It was the worst killing spree in modern history. In 90 minutes of madness, 32-year-old Andrew Breivik killed over 90 teenagers. Take a peek into the thoughts of the killer who deemed his actions “atrocious but necessary.”
The Jesus Conspiracies

The Jesus Conspiracies is a gripping, unpredictable mini-series that follows our brilliant, conspiracy-obsessed host on a detective story around the world as he unearths concealed, controversial, and illuminating clues in an effort to piece together the real history of the man known as Jesus Christ.

Bunker People

How many people are buying into the Hollywood version of doomsday 2012? The answer is surprising. We follow a lucrative business that specializes in building one-of-a-kind bunkers for eccentric clients. These families believe they are preparing for the end of the world, as they know it. Find out how much time, effort and money is invested into this underground world and phenomenon.

Area 51: Revelations

Hear from the men who lived and worked in the encampment known as “Area 51” as they reveal never-before-heard hidden secrets. Forget everything you know. This is a story you won’t find in mainstream media.

Build It Bigger Series 5

Danny Forster is back to take one final swing around the globe to examine jaw-dropping and life-altering feats of engineering. The Harvard-trained professional architect brings viewers inside the planet’s most astounding and innovative engineering. From London’s Olympic Aquatic Stadium to the Sava River Bridge in Serbia, each project not only dramatically changes the city’s infrastructure, but also the lives of those who use them.
