JUNGLE GOLD

Determined gold miners from around the world seek their fortunes in the dangerous and gold-rich jungles of Ghana, Africa’s second largest gold producing country. With little money and everything on the line, rookie American gold miners George Wright and Scott Lomu, beg and borrow anything they can to succeed after losing it all in the 2008 U.S. real estate crash. After securing $150,000 from an investor, the pressure is on to find gold to pay back their debts. Against stacked odds, the stakes have never been higher.

Also includes Jungle Gold: Behind the Scenes (1 X 60)

EXTREME CAR HOARDERS

Two turbo-expert buddies are on an epic quest to help extreme car-hoarders transform their tired, old-looking ride into a machine that makes the most rebellious genre... and some of them into millionaires in the process.

KINGS OF CRASH

Nick Popovich and his team of expert stunt drivers take vehicles all across the United States for the ultimate in danger and speed. They risk it all for that one epic shot, but the question is... can they make it through the day without breaking a record? Each week, they take on the biggest challenge of their career, and in the end, only one emerges victorious. Who will win?

AIRPLANE REPO

Nick Popovich and his team hunt down multi-million dollar aircrafts from bases throughout the United States for repossession. Launching spotters in the field and repo pilots in the cockpit, they risk it all to return luxury planes to their owners. Relying upon wits, skill and sheer courage, it is high risk for high reward for these super repo men.

BACKYARD OIL

Follow the fortunes of the most boot-strappin' oil men in all of Appalachia – magnate Jimmy Reliford, and his howling sidekick Mad Dog; greasy ol' polecat Coomer, who’s raking in a tidy $300K per month thanks to an oil strike in his own backyard; a bearded hillbilly named Rascal, who uses a set of brass rods to douse for oil; and the Page Boys, a father-son team who can’t help but bicker about everything...except finding that sweet, sweet crude.

MOONSHINERS

Moonshining is a multi-million dollar industry and a tradition dating back hundreds of years, passed down from the days of bootleggers and backwoods stills. But while this practice is alive and well, it is not always legal. Follow the struggles of those who brew their own shine – often in the woods using camouflaged equipment – and the local authorities who are trying to shut them down.

ROCK RAIDERS
6 X 60
In the gem world, “Texas” Don Kogen is a legend. Don and his crew travel the secluded corners of the world on the hunt for the rarest and most expensive stones known to man, for the chance to make, or lose millions of dollars, all the while trying to stay one step ahead of his competition.

EVEREST: BEYOND THE LIMIT
SERIES 1-2
19 X 60
Follow the grueling efforts of a team of climbers as they attempt to fulfill their dreams by reaching the summit of Mount Everest. The climb was organized and managed by Russell Brice, an experienced New Zealander. Using the latest high-altitude video technology to document the expedition, viewers are privy to the climbers’ every step as they deal with their own physical and mental struggles.

NAKED AND MAROONED WITH ED STAFFORD
4 X 60
Former British Army Captain Ed Stafford was the first person to walk the length of the Amazon River, but surviving alone on a deserted island is his biggest adventure yet. Can he last 60 days on an uninhabited Fijian island with absolutely nothing? It’s a daunting challenge, but nobody’s ever done it before. Filmed entirely by Ed himself, there’s never been a more authentic survival series on TV.

FORBIDDEN
12 X 60
In a world full of secrets, be careful when you lift the lid. Double lives – strange, unusual and beyond belief – but the bizarre is often closer than you think. In Forbidden, take a glimpse into unique, previously unseen and sometimes extreme lifestyles and behaviors from around the world, including a woman who has lived half her life as a pony, a tattoo artist who inks using his own blood, a man with a physical love for his bicycle and a man who likes to live as a pregnant woman.

RAILROAD ALASKA
6 X 60
Railroad Alaska follows the elite crew of workers – brakemen, engineers, construction crews, mechanics and train drivers – as they battle ferocious weather and treacherous terrain to keep the State of Alaska’s critical 500-mile-long railroad rolling through the extreme winter.

SUNRISE EARTH
30 X 60
Sunrise is nature’s alarm clock for the land, the sea and the myriad of creatures that call this planet home. Enjoy a tranquil and breathtaking high-definition journey of the landscape, shot in real time, and hear the sights and sounds of nature at first light of a new day dawning.

AMERICA'S CUTEST PETS
10 X 60
We're counting down the cutest pet videos from the web. From the quirky pig that plays the piano to the cat that pretends the friendship of a dolphin is her best, these videos are filled with adorable creatures and most adorable pets. Find out who we crown America’s Cutest Pet.

MY CAT FROM HELL
Series 1-4
36 X 60
From spastic cats that break up relationships to violent felines that put their owners in the hospital, cat behaviorist Jackson Galaxy has seen it all. Follow Jackson as he brings his unique understanding of cats to desperate families on the verge of giving up on their furry companions.

SWIMMING WITH MONSTERS
4 X 60
Wildlife expert and adventurer Steve Backshall has spent his entire life getting up close to incredible animals. Now he wants to find answers to his own questions about four of the most “monstrous” animals on our planet: the hippo, anaconda, giant Humboldt squid and great white shark. In each episode, Steve joins forces with behavioral specialists, top scientists and extreme divers in order to develop protocols for diving with fascinating but deadly animals. They will then hunt down these notorious beasts in order to swim with them.

NORTH AMERICA
North America reveals the intimate stories of animals struggling to survive in unforgiving weather and rugged terrain. From the grizzly bears in the mountains, to the lemmings of the great plains, the otters, beavers and whitewater blue catfish of the freshwater rivers, the timber wolves of the forests to the hammerhead sharks of the coasts, North America has one of the most diverse environments of any continent in the world. We’ve before seen sequences range from the elusive desert jaguar in Mexico to during grizzly bears diving in more than 20 feet of water to grab salmon in Alaska. *5 X 60, plus 1-hour Making of and 1-hour North America: Top Ten specials.

MAN, CHEETAH, WILD
1 X 120
Kim Wohlter spends much of his time living in the wild among a family of cheetahs. To get close enough to them to film their daily lives and interactions, he’s had to keep a low profile and survive in the bush for weeks at a time. The cheetahs have gotten used to him and he’s learned from them. Follow along with Kim and the cheetahs in this cross-genre look at natural history meets survival.

NORTH AMERICA
Sharks may only kill for food, but they share similar strategies with human serial killers: they lurk out of sight, stalking their victims. Experts conduct a forensic study of recent shark attacks, including DNA analysis looking for a serial killer among great whites.

TEN DEADLIEST SHARKS

Take a closer look at the sharks you don’t want to meet this summer – and the ones you’re most likely to encounter. Learn about the horn shark, lemon shark, grey reef shark, hammerhead, dusky shark, mako, oceanic white-tip, tiger shark, great white and the bull shark. Find out how and where they attack their prey, and what makes them a premier killer in their specific habitats.

MEGALODON: STILL ALIVE

Not only was megalodon the biggest prehistoric shark that ever lived, but its predatory mane can continue in the history of the planet, advancing food chains around great white sharks and ancient reptiles. Now, new evidence and shark experts believe they have seen or proven a new species.

I ESCAPED JAWS

Witnessing footage captured by bystanders as we watch harrowing firsthand accounts of victims who stared into the jaws of a shark attack and survived. Some used their wits; some relied on experience, and all lived to share their chilling stories.

Megalodon: Still Alive

Not only was megalodon the biggest prehistoric shark that ever lived; it was the biggest predatory marine creature in the history of the planet, advancing food chains around great white sharks and ancient reptiles. Now, new evidence and shark experts believe they have seen or proven a new species.

SPAWN OF JAWS

Spawn of Jaws follows a scientist on the brink of a breakthrough as he reveals the life cycle of the great white shark for the first time. We take a dive into pupping and mating to learn what makes the ocean’s most renowned predator.

SHARKPOCALYPSE

Following a year of shark encounters closely followed by the media, Sharkpocalypse examines the trend of sharks moving in closer to shorelines, and debates whether there is a connection between declining shark populations and the increase in shark attacks.

CATFISHIN’ KINGS

Hosted by Texas native Brady Knowlton, a local folk hero who legalized the adrenaline-fueled sport in his home state, “Catfishin’ Kings” drops the nation’s top noodling teams into the murky waters of Texas, where they compete in a bracket-style competition. The stakes are high, and the catches are even bigger.

TANKED

Follow the antics of two brothers-in-law as they run the largest aquarium manufacturing company in the nation. “Tanked” dunks viewers into the high-decibel, family-owned business of Acrylic Tank Manufacturing. Led by business partners, best friends and constant rivals, Wayde King and Brett Raymer, this 13,000-square-foot Las Vegas facility builds some of the most larger-than-life and one-of-a-kind tanks for some of the most striking fish and clients around.

FAST N’ LOUD

Motor mastermind Richard and mechanical prodigy Aaron are searching high and low for forgotten and neglected vintage cars to buy and restore at their Gas Monkey Garage in Dallas, Texas. Most assume these old classics, from ‘57 Chevys to ‘73 Trans Ams, are rust buckets – but to this crew, they’re potential goldmines. Once Richard wheels and deals for a good price, the real work begins back at the garage, where the guys race against the clock to finish the job in time for auction.

OFF THE HOOK: EXTREME CATCHES

Avid outdoorsman and professional wrestler “Showtime” Eric Young hits the road and crisscrosses the country to fish hand to hand with America’s most extreme anglers. “Off The Hook: Extreme Catches” follows Young as he tracks down some of the most creative, unusual and dangerous fishing rituals around the country. Young embraces old, local traditions practiced for decades and centuries, and no matter how long it takes, how crazy it seems or how many bumps and bruises he gets along the way, Young won’t stop ’til he catches the ultimate fish.

DALLAS CAR SHARKS

Welcome to the ultracompetitive world of car flipping, where car enthusiasts from all over the world gather in Dallas to find the next big deal. “Dallas Car Sharks” drops the nation’s top dealers in for a bracket-style competition to see who can turn the highest percentage of profit, buy the best projects and sell them into the most lucrative markets. The stakes are high, and the deals are even bigger. The sharks have the advantage, but the cars have the story. Who will come out on top? Only the toughest dealers can make it through the shark tank and come out winners.

I (ALMOST) GOT AWAY WITH IT
SERIES 1-6
For these perpetrators, their stories may be different, but their motives are always the same— to escape. Evading justice for years, sometimes decades, these offenders do their best to stay out of prison by using their families, fake identities and even violence to avoid capture. Each episode features an interview from prison with these slick culprits, who spill where they found shelter, how they changed their identities and how they almost got away with it.

SHADOW OPS
3 X 60
Shadow Ops covers true tales of high-stake spy games from agents who risked their lives in global espionage. Interviews with CIA, FBI, KGB & MI6 vets takes viewers inside spell-binding narratives from the days of the Cold War. Watch gritty and tense "fly on the wall" re-creations and get a hands-on taste of the spy gadgets and tactics used by world-class agents.

STREET OUTLAWS
Street Outlaws is a driver’s seat view into the world of American illegal street racing. From a 1969 Chevy Nova to an incognito, race-ready farm truck—and everything in between—these street demons take their racing very seriously. They are constantly smack talking, betting on races, pulling pranks and other crazy redneck antics with their fellow racers. Ultimately, street racing comes first and they’ll endanger their lives, spend their money and risk going to jail—anything to be number one.

THE SHADOW MILITARY

Critics call them mercenaries. The government calls them essential to fighting a modern war. Now these soldiers-for-hire provide a rare look into what they do, why they do it and how they've become vital to winning the war on terrorism.

SECRETS OF DIPLOMATIC SECURITY

They are the foot level of United States diplomacy — Special Agents of the State Department's highly secretive protective force called Diplomatic Security. This clandestine force has some secrets never before revealed to the public.

DELTA FORCE: TIER 1

They are the most effective unit in the US Army — their existence even officially acknowledged. They use Delta Force as their own special operations team. In this exciting documentary, a former Delta Force commander reveals never-before-told secrets about this elite unit.

CIA BLACK OPS

They are known as the tip of the spear — the CIA's Special Activities Division. They operate outside the law, outside the traditional military chain of command. In this special, former CIA operations officers reveal details about some of the CIA's darkest operations.

SECRETS OF SEAL TEAM 6

For three decades, the government did everything in its power to keep outsiders from knowing about or discovering SEAL Team 6. But now, with the highly publicised success of Operation Neptune Spear and the death of Osama Bin Laden, the team's cover has been blown. While their missions are shrouded in mystery, this special reveals details about the elusive unit, its advanced weapons training and the specialised technology used to infiltrate some of the most secure places on Earth.
NAVY SEALS: TRAINING

BUD/S CLASS 234

When the 150 men of class 234 begin Basic Underwater Demolition SEAL (BUDS) training, they have the toughest six months of their life ahead of them. They have been selected from over 1,500 applicants and by the time Class 234 graduates, only 32 will remain to become US Navy SEALs. This series takes the viewers behind a structured world of sacrifice designed to force BUDS students to the limits of their physical and emotional endurance. It is the most complex, demanding, and grueling test of commitment ever devised by any commando force in existence.

BULLET POINTS

Each action-packed episode of Bullet Points dives into history’s most important battles to learn their larger significance to the outcome of the war. Each episode, an hour-long roller coaster ride for top expert analysts with cutting-edge computer generated imagery, dramatic reenactments and archival footage. This is the fast-paced, riveting Cliff’s Notes version of how wars are won, as told through their most significant battles.

PIRATES!

Fabled characters such as Sir Francis Drake, the buccaneer, Captain Morgan, the notorious Captain Kidd, Blackbeard and pirate queen Anne Bonny come to life through the magic of recreations, authentic artifacts, 3-D animation and special effects. Tales of torture, sea battles and debauchery have created a pirate legend that has little to do with reality. But the real pirates are even more colorful than their legends suggest. Without knowing it, pirate bands experimented with democracy, liberty and equality with some of their ideas even enshrined in the American Constitution.

INSIDE WACO

On the 20th anniversary of the Waco siege, this one-hour special features exclusive audio recordings between the FBI, leader David Koresh and other Branch Davidians to tell the inside story of what happened inside the Texas-based religious compound in 1993, when a 51-day siege ended with 80 Branch Davidians dying.

CRUISE SHIP DISASTER: INSIDE THE CONCORDIA UPDATE

When the hull of one of the biggest cruise ships in the world is ripped open by a submerged rock off the Italian coast, it starts a night of terror for the four thousand passengers and crew on board the Costa Concordia. In the one-year update, this special features extraordinary eyewitness accounts from survivors, exclusive analysis from marine experts and remarkable footage filmed by people onboard as the nightmare unfolded.

GOLD FEVER

Follow a crew of miners – Jack, Dorsey, Thurber and Greg – as they begin a desperate search for the money to keep mining – and to keep their team and families together. Will they be able to mitigate the stresses, hold their nerve and make a fortune?

THE COMPLETE NELSON MANDELA

From terrorist to peacemaker, prisoner to president, Nelson Mandela dedicated his life to the struggle against South Africa's system of apartheid. Imprisoned for 27 years on Robben Island, Mandela had every right to hate – instead he taught the world how to forgive. The men and women who have turned his inspiration into action have their own stories to tell, about how a man gave them the courage to forgive and the power to achieve the impossible.
GOLD RUSH
SERIES 1-3
A group of down-on-their-luck men, in the face of an economic meltdown, risk everything to strike it rich mining for gold in Alaska. In Series 3, the Hoffman crew pushes ahead to make the most of the short mining season. Todd Hoffman doubles the crew, land and equipment to dig the Glory Hole which is believed to hide millions in unclaimed gold. But is that enough to get him to his goal of finding 10 times more than he did last year?

THE DEVILS RIDE
SERIES 1-2
Go inside the world of motorcycle clubs with the members of San Diego’s LaFfing Devils. The Devils Ride sports a diverse crew but one bonded by a commitment to each other and the club. This series, the LaFfing Devils, which was once one of the fastest growing motorcycle clubs in the city, has recently splintered off into two separate clubs. Now they are going head to head with new rival club, Sinister Mob Syndicate, for honor, respect, colours… and maybe a little bit of revenge.

NAKED AND AFRAID
What happens when you put a man and woman in one of the most remote areas of the world? Watch as in each episode a new pair of complete and total strangers find themselves stranded in one of the world’s most extreme weather environments. This duo must survive on their own for a full 21 days, with nothing but one personal item each and the knowledge that the only prize is their pride and sense of accomplishment.
This is a side of Amish society that exists under the radar, and the Amish church denies the group’s existence. Untrusting of outside law enforcement, some Amish in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania have for many years regularly turned to a small organised group of men for protection and justice. Amish Mafia provides eyewitness accounts of the incidents, misdeeds and wrongdoings within the community, as well as a rare look at Lebanon Levi, the Amish insider who holds the power and serves as protector of the community.

For the first time ever, Mafia insider and ex-con Lou Ferrante reveals the secrets of some of the most violent prison gangs on Earth. By re-entering the hellish world he walked away from a decade ago, he provides a unique insiders’ look at prison gang culture. Lou explores different gang cultures, their characters and their inner workings in El Salvador, the Philippines, New Mexico, Italy and Poland. These gangs rule the streets from inside prison walls, while running activities from behind bars and controlling the communities living outside.
ALL THE PRESIDENT’S MEN REVISITED

In this special, award-winning actor and director Robert Redford looks back at Watergate – the original game changer of American politics. Redford, who served as producer of the iconic 1976 film “All the President’s Men,” brought the story of Watergate to the big screen. More than 40 years after a bungled burglary brought a beleaguered presidency down and the term “Watergate” into the national lexicon, Mr. Redford returns to the scandal that broke all the rules of press and politics, brought down a president and forever changed the country.

JFK: THE LOST TAPES

History changed forever on the day that President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, and for the first time since, newly released government tapes expose exactly what happened. Combined with audio recordings from the Dallas Police Force and statements from eyewitnesses, viewers get the behind-the-scenes story of the presidential assassination, the police manhunt and the vital role that local pressmen played in keeping the world informed.
